

Generic Family Media Summary Example

The Wilson Family

John, Holly, Elena, Graham

San Antonio, Texas

Adoption story

John and Holly began their foster care and adoption journey as mentors and foster parents. During their foster care training they decided to consider fostering teens. They realized they had a talent for parenting teens. Their fostering experience soon turned to adoption. Elena entered foster care at the age of nine. Graham, Elena's older brother, entered care at age 12. They were adopted by John and Holly at the ages of 11 and 14.

The Wilson family has created many new traditions and experienced a host of family firsts together.

Key messages

- The benefits of teens. Be open to fostering or adopting teens.
- Celebrating firsts, like traveling out of state, trying new foods, and going on family vacations.

Media experience

- Speakers bureau volunteers
- Local media interviews and videos